

What's the deal with BRUNCH?

The dictionary says "a meal typically eaten late in the morning as a combination of a late breakfast and an early lunch". OK, that works, but to me, brunch has always been a bit more than just a meal. It's like a mini celebration with family or friends, a time to relax and regale, have great conversation, fevered debates, and loads of laughter. A good ole time chow'n some tasty vittles, and in our case, tasty vegan vittles. So, thanks for spending your Sunday with us and enjoy.
